Dear Sir/Madam,

There is not a way to limit what calls can be made with the API it is all access only at this time.

Regards,

Kurt P

Is there a way to limit the scope of the API keys? It seems there is not a way to limit the power of the key. I am using an API to manage some DNS settings so I would like to limit the key to only the DNS apis. Is there a way to limit access of the key? Thanks
